Hello Matt,

I got this from the Wash Post today...any insight I can give...even if for their planning purposes only?

Hi there, we may need need to write about Pebble Mine again, and I'm wondering whether EPA will submit a Clean Water Act 404(q) 3(b) letter on Thursday. FPP0, is that happening, or do you think you all will ask for an extension? It just will determine how much we need to hustle on this, especially given the time difference. Thanks, and I hope you got an actual long weekend.
